We also have a small bar which is exclusive to residents and their guests.

Charges for children

Children's' rates apply to all children sharing a room. The hotel has one family room which can accommodate a maximum of three people and we have one full size z-link bed which is suitable for short stays. Responsible children may share with each other if a room is available and close to the responsible adult. Please note that there is no special children's menu

Parties

This year we are offering to groups of 15 or more people a discount whereby one person comes free.
